

Immigrants Are Major Contributors to Nevada's Transportation, Warehousing, and Utilities Industry

An estimated 41,000 immigrants work in Nevada's transportation, warehousing, and utilities industry, making up 27% of Nevada's transportation, warehousing, and utilities workforce.

Immigrants of all backgrounds boost Nevada's transportation, warehousing, and utilities industry. Some 20,000 immigrants, or about 49% of all immigrants in Nevada's transportation, warehousing, and utilities industry, are U.S. citizens. About 7,000 are lawful permanent residents, and 1,000 are temporary immigrants on a nonimmigrant visa.

Dreamers—undocumented immigrants who came to the U.S. as children before 2021 and are either in school or have graduated from high school—number 3,000 workers in Nevada's transportation, warehousing, and utilities industry. Some 1,000 are Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipients.

An estimated 2,000 immigrants working in Nevada's transportation, warehousing, and utilities industry are waiting for a decision on their asylum claim.

Immigrant groups protected from deportation—DACA recipients, TPS holders, people seeking asylum, and those waiting for a permanent residency visa—have access to work permits, making up an estimated 4,000 transportation, warehousing, and utilities industry workers in Nevada.
