

Immigrants Make UT-4 Stronger

An estimated 114,000 immigrants live in UT-4, making up 12% of the total population.

Immigrants live in 19% of households in UT-4.

Immigrants contribute to every sector of UT-4's economy. Some 17% of UT-4's labor force are immigrants, including 27% of the construction industry, 15% of agriculture, 22% of manufacturing, 19% of business services, and 16% of leisure and hospitality.

About 9,000 immigrants in UT-4 work in STEM-related jobs, of which 20% are temporary immigrants on H-1B and other temporary work visas. In all, 22% of STEM degree holders in UT-4 are immigrants.

Immigrants of all backgrounds boost UT-4's communities. Some 40,000 immigrants, or about 35% of all immigrants in UT-4, are U.S. citizens. About 20,000 are lawful permanent residents, and 8,000 are temporary immigrants (including nonimmigrant visa holders and international students).

An estimated 10% of individuals in UT-4, or some 96,000, are either undocumented immigrants or live with an undocumented immigrant. Some 18,000 U.S. citizen children in UT-4 live with an undocumented parent, while some 5,000 U.S. citizen spouses are married to an undocumented immigrant. Some 21,000 undocumented individuals in UT-4 have lived in the U.S. for more than 10 years, with 12,000 of those living in the U.S. for more than 20 years.

Dreamers—undocumented immigrants who came to the U.S. as children before 2021 and are either in school or have graduated from high school—number 7,000 and contribute $202 million annually to UT-4's economy. They also contribute $27 million in state and local taxes each year. Some 2,000 are Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipients.

Temporary Protected Status (TPS) holders—immigrants who cannot safely return to their home countries—numbered 4,000 and contributed $118 million to UT-4's economy in 2024. Meanwhile, an estimated 13,000 immigrants in UT-4 are waiting for a decision on their asylum claim, and contribute $280 million to UT-4's economy annually.

Immigrant groups currently protected from deportation—DACA recipients, TPS holders, people seeking asylum, and those waiting for a permanent residency visa—have access to work authorizations, making up an estimated 12,000 workers in UT-4's labor force, and paying an estimated $57 million annually in state and local taxes.
